Mr. Robert Trout, President
Association of Radio-Television
News Analysts
24 East Thirty-ninth Street
New York 16, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Trout:

I appreciate your kind letter of 30 September inviting me to attend a luncheon to be given by the Association of Radio-Television News Analysts. My delay in answering is due to the fact that I have just recently returned from a trip to the Far North.

I would like very much to have the opportunity again to meet the men of your interesting organization and I will certainly let you know as soon as I can work out the arrangements here.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
2430 E. Street
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Several years ago, you may remember, you joined the members of the Association of Radio-Television News Analysts at a small lunch here in New York for an off-the-record discussion. We all greatly enjoyed meeting you and found it an extremely valuable occasion that gave us the kind of background information that is so important to newsmen.

We should be most grateful if you can find it possible to visit us again. Our small lunches are still held at the Williams Club, 24 East 39th Street, New York City and, as you know, are strictly informal, with no speeches and no publicity.

Knowing what a crowded schedule you have, I thought that perhaps you'd prefer not to be offered any specific dates. Instead, I'll ask you, if you can manage another meeting with us, to pick a week day that would be convenient for you. We are very eager for an opportunity of a chat and informal lunch with you here in New York City soon.

Yours faithfully,

Robert Trout
President
